

Hot New Hotels

Here are 40 must-see properties that have opened or repositioned since January 2007

HOW DID WE COMPILE OUR LIST? We turned to Travel Agent magazine's top in-house destination editors and freelancers, who have traveled the world to sample some of the best; we also consulted with three industry experts and globetrotters: Ignacio Maza, executive vice president of Signature Travel Network; Suzanne Hall, senior director of marketing and development, land products for Ensemble Travel Group; and Albert Herrera, vice president of Virtuoso's Hotels and Resorts Program

Mystique—Santorini, Greece

Mystique (<http://www.mystique.gr/>), a member of Starwood's Luxury Collection, has 18 rooms carved into a cliff on the edge of Santorini's chic town of Oia. We suspect having cocktails at The Aura Bar and snagging the resort's wine cave for a private dinner will be two of the top attractions for jetsetters. Contact Kalia Konstantinidou at kalia.konstantinidou@vedema.gr